

Waytronx, Inc.
Shareholder Communications

Company shareholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors or an individual director may write to Waytronx, Inc., 20050 SW 112th Ave., Tualatin, OR 97062 or to the attention of an individual director. Your letter should indicate that you are a shareholder and whether you own your shares in street name. Letters received will be retained until the next Board meeting when they will be available to the addressed director. Such communications may receive an initial evaluation to determine, based on the substance and nature of the communication, a suitable process for internal distribution, review and response or other appropriate treatment. There is no assurance that all communications will receive a response.
